FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 01/21/2011

On 01/18/2011, a meeting was held with [redacted] her husband [redacted] and daughter [redacted]. The following individuals were present for this meeting:

b6

District of Arizona Criminal [redacted]
[redacted]
U.S. Attorney's Office
FBI Victim specialist, [redacted]
FBI Special Agent, [redacted]
Victim Advocate [redacted] Pima County
Attorney's Office

[redacted] explained that he will be supervising the federal case involving the shooting incident of 01/08/2011. Currently there are four Assistant United States Attorneys assigned to this investigation. This is a lengthy process and could take 18 months or longer.

The case has been assigned to Federal Judge Burns out of the Southern District of California. On 01/09/2011 a five count criminal complaint was filed. At this time a preliminary hearing is scheduled for 01/24/2011. The case could be presented to a Federal Grand Jury prior to that date. The Grand Jury is a secret process and can not be shared. If an indictment is returned prior to 01/24/2011 then an arraignment hearing would take place that same date. Additional charges could be added at a later time which would result in a superceding indictment.

The government has a lengthy process to go through if death eligible charges are brought against the defendant. The Department of Justice reviews the case to see if it warrants the death penalty. The case would then be forwarded to the Attorney General who ultimately decided whether or not to charge the death penalty.

All victims opinions will be taken into consideration throughout the process. Victims have the right to be advised of all court hearings and to be heard at sentencing. Victim Specialist [redacted] provided information on victim's rights.

[REDACTED] LOUGHNER, [REDACTED] were always consistent in their behavior and activities. The group of boys did not have fights or issues. [REDACTED] never felt that LOUGHNER was an individual [REDACTED] would not want [REDACTED] to associate with. [REDACTED] felt that LOUGHNER was like "extended family".

On one occasion in approximately 2007, LOUGHNER was at [REDACTED] home. LOUGHNER asked [REDACTED] if he could read [REDACTED] a story that he wrote because he wanted to be a writer. [REDACTED] did not understand LOUGHNER's story. [REDACTED] recalled LOUGHNER's story to be about an angel. [REDACTED] was not positive, but thought that she recalled the story being about an angel, a reporter, and the end of the world. [REDACTED] found LOUGHNER's story to be somewhat unusual because she did not understand it. LOUGHNER asked [REDACTED] if she thought his story was good. [REDACTED] told LOUGHNER that if LOUGHNER worked hard, LOUGHNER would be able to do whatever he wanted to do. To [REDACTED] recollection, this was the last time she saw LOUGHNER.

When [REDACTED] and LOUGHNER were in tenth grade, in approximately 2004 or 2005, LOUGHNER stopped associating with [REDACTED] as frequently. [REDACTED] remained in contact with LOUGHNER when they would play computer games on the Internet. LOUGHNER stopped hanging out with [REDACTED] because LOUGHNER started dating a girl. [REDACTED] believed that LOUGHNER's girlfriend's name may have been [REDACTED] (exact last name not recalled). At one point, [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] why LOUGHNER was not socializing with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that LOUGHNER "wasn't doing good things". [REDACTED] recalled that [REDACTED] told her that LOUGHNER was "breaking into cars". [REDACTED] and his friends did not like the things that LOUGHNER was doing. LOUGHNER helped [REDACTED] get a job at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] could not recall when [REDACTED] began working at [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] also knew that LOUGHNER worked at an Eddie Bauer retail store at some point because [REDACTED] saw LOUGHNER in the mall wearing his uniform. [REDACTED] did not recall LOUGHNER ever having any involvement with drugs or alcohol.

SA [ ] reviewed the video entitled 'signing to cashier' located at N:\Timeline Photos\walking around on the Federal Bureau of Investigation Phoenix server. 'NTLXULTRA 1/8/2011' is imprinted at the top of the video. In the lower left hand corner of the video, 'REG1' and a time counter is imprinted. The time counter starts at '10:06:57.57' and runs through '10:07:44.62'.

In the video, a white male wearing a black tight fitting cap signs "sorry", "thank you", "today", "I/me/my", "L", "O", "V", "E", "for", using American Sign Language (ASL).

The use of fingerspelling indicates that the signer is an amateur signer as there is a single sign for the word 'Love'.

Although the signer did not use correct ASL word order, it is SA [ ] opinion that the signer was attempting to communicate 'Today is for my love.' The 'sorry' and 'thank you' appear to be in response to him cutting, and/or being allowed to go in front of a person in line who had more items to pay for than the signer did.

SA [ ] has completed American Sign Language 101 and 102 at Phoenix College. SA [ ] also has two Deaf children and uses basic sign language on a daily basis at home. SA [ ] is not a certified ASL interpreter and does not claim to be an expert in ASL.

[redacted] parked his vehicle and entered the south door of the Safeway. After picking up the cheese, [redacted] also picked up several Naked brand juice bottles, which he likes to drink. [redacted] was in the number one express lane to check out, an older white female, (name unknown), dressed in a floral colored shirt was standing behind him in line. The older female made a comment to [redacted] regarding the juice, [redacted] explained to her the juice was very healthy for one to drink, he then advised her where the juice was located in the store. The female leaving her groceries on the conveyor belt stepped out of line and headed to pick up some of the juice. [redacted] noted a younger guy, possibly with black hair, hop in front of her in the line, putting him next to [redacted] but [redacted] did not pay much attention to him, [redacted] was talking with the cashier, whom he knows.

After [redacted] paid for his groceries, he was headed out the grocery store toward the south door, prior to exiting, he stopped to purchase some football stickers for his son. [redacted] could not purchase the stickers because he only had one quarter and needed two, so he continued out the south door. On Saturday, 1/8/2010, [redacted]

[redacted] were shopping at the Safeway Food Store at the intersection of Ina and Oracle, Tucson, Arizona. While standing at the 1st check out counter, while the bagger was bagging their food, he dropped the food, and the family had to stand and wait to have the food replaced. [redacted] heard a pop, pop, pop, which she described as gun fire, her husband immediately moved the family toward the customer service center, while shielding the children with his body. [redacted] and the children stayed at the customer service counter, and played the "close your eyes game" with her children as people where entering the store, stating "someone is shot."

[redacted] then observed bloody people being brought into the store, at least two or three injured people which were taken over to the Starbucks, US Bank area. [redacted] recalls observing one older white male that was shot in the shoulder and a white female with long hair shot in the hand and leg, both were ushered into the Safeway. [redacted] thought the two victims were possibly husband and wife. [redacted] stated "my little girl saw bloody people." [redacted] claimed her daughter is now having nightmares, and wakes up crying. [redacted] has stated "I don't want to talk about it, bad things happen."

[redacted] explained that although her family lives across town, the reason they were shopping at that particular Safeway was her family was purchasing groceries for a Saturday afternoon BBQ being held at her mom's home, located close to that Safeway.

[redacted] said that after the shooting stopped, her husband, whom she married on 11/6/2010, "ran out to help people." After [REDACTED] exited the Safeway to assist the wounded, [REDACTED] believes she was separated from her husband for five to ten minutes. [REDACTED] heard 6 gunshots and saw smoke from the window area of the north door of the Safeway.

[REDACTED] while he was assisting the wounded, he rolled the judge over to help, but some lady pushed him out of the way. [REDACTED] that he saw the judge's face change color to a yellowish color. [REDACTED] knew the judge, and has stood in front of the judge, (indicating her husband was in front of the judge as a defendant). [REDACTED] described her husband as "a good man."

Due to the shooting, when [REDACTED] drops something, or hears a loud noise, she drops to the floor, thinking she is part of another shooting.

[REDACTED] vehicle was parked near the GABBY GIFFORD sign outside the Safeway, her family was escorted by a police officer, name unknown, outside the Safeway through the south door over to the vehicle. The police officer then stated "please move your vehicle, just go." [REDACTED] and her family departed the parking lot. [REDACTED] showed a camera picture of the Safeway parking lot, which showed the yellow police tape. [REDACTED] stated that was a picture she had taken of the scene before leaving.

[REDACTED] "had a bad weird feeling something was going to happen" (indicating that Saturday morning). [REDACTED] picked up her children from their father at Casa de los Ninas, located at 5th/Speedway, Tucson, Arizona, 9:15 am. [redacted] explained on Saturday, 1/8/2011, while driving his wife's red Ford Escape, he parked the vehicle in front of the Safeway grocery store located at the intersection of Oracle and Ina, Tucson, Arizona. [redacted] parked the Escape in the red zone with the hazzard lights on. [redacted] entered the Safeway grocery store in order to make a bank deposit at the US Bank which is located inside the Safeway. US Bank opens around 10:00 am.

[redacted] was making the deposit for his wife, as she was not feeling well that morning. After making the deposit, [redacted] returned to the Escape where his 12 year old son, a baby and toddler were waiting in the vehicle. [redacted] had forgotten to purchase some New York Giants stickers for his older son which he had promised to purchase while inside the Safeway, so he sent his son back into the Safeway to purchase the stickers.

Just after entering the Escape, [redacted] heard one gun shot, then between 15 to 20 more gun shots. [redacted] looked up toward the north door and of the Safeway and saw a lot of gun smoke coming from the area of the shooting. [redacted] observed a lady in a dress with a jacket on fall to the ground, immediately someone attended to her. [redacted] did not know the identity of the lady dressed in the dress, but did watch the news on Saturday until his 12 year old son asked him to turn off the TV. During the shooting [redacted] also observed a "kid" that was standing in the same area of the shooting, dressed in a dress shirt with slacks and a tie take off running toward the Wells Fargo Bank, he was running so fast, "his tie was flying behind him." [redacted] observed an older male possibly dressed in a red colored University of Arizona shirt run toward the South entrance of the Safeway. Jose Luis Castillo, Jr., [REDACTED] interviewed at his place of employment, Pima County Justice Courts, 115 North Church Avenue, Tucson, Arizona. After being advised of the identity of the investigating agent Castillo provided the following information:

[REDACTED]

Castillo was questioned regarding an article which appeared in a NYTimes.com article. The article read as follows: [REDACTED]

In September, Mr. LOUGHNER filled out paperwork to have his record expunged on the 2007 drug paraphernalia charge. Although he did not need to bother - he completed a diversion program, so the charge was never actually on his record - Judge Jose Luis Castillo, who handled the case in Pima County Consolidated Justice Court, said after the shooting that, in retrospect, it definitely "crossed my mind" that Mr. LOUGHNER was worried that the charge would prevent him from buying a weapon.

Castillo advised that he was the assigned judge to JARED LEE LOUGHNER's case, number CR07718864. Judges are assigned by the court administration on a rotating calendar.

By way of background, on 9/09/2007 LOUGHNER was cited for possession of drug paraphernalia, a violation of Arizona State Statue 13-3415A. On Arizona Complaint, number 502957, incident number 070909359, LOUGHNER was told to appear at the Pima County Justice Court at 10/04/2007.

On 10/04/2007 LOUGHNER appeared at the referenced court as requested. Agents note: An audio recording of the appearance was provided by LOUGHNER and can also be downloaded at [www.jp.Pima.gov] During the appearance, Castillo took factual basis of the case, gave LOUGHNER the rule 17 advisory and explained the Pima County (PC) Adult Diversion Program. LOUGHNER agreed to attend the PC Adult Diversion Program. Castillo advised that he gave a program completion deadline of 2/20/2008 to LOUGHNER which was a month longer that he normally gives because LOUGHNER was younger and in Castillo's experience, younger participants take longer to complete the program. Castillo believed the program consisted of an eight hour substance abuse class. Castillo advised that he did not remember LOUGHNER until he listened to the court recording, after which he could recall the case more than LOUGHNER as an individual. Castillo advised that LOUGHNER was respectful, and asked questions. LOUGHNER shown patience as he waited longer than normal due to computer software issues at the time of his hearing. Castillo noted that he spoke softly and physically pointed out the court window to tell LOUGHNER where LOUGHNER's Adult Diversion Program classes would be held. Castillo advised he adjusts his demeanor to the individuals in the courtroom and that his speaking softly and physically pointing out the window were indicators that LOUGHNER appeared non-threatening, or non-assuming. [agents note:  the courtroom clerk advised that she also did not remember LOUGHNER from the hearing, most likely because he acted fairly normal]

Castillo advised that LOUGHNER completed the PC Adult Diversion Program in two to three weeks. Castillo advised that the motion to dismiss was filed on 10/31/2010. On 11/13/2007 the case was dismissed and a conviction was not recorded. LOUGHNER filed an Application and Order to Set Aside Judgement on 9/07/2010. On 9/09/2010 Castillo denied the request because the case was dismissed on 11/13/2007 which made the request non applicable.

Castillo advised there were several noteworthy items regarding LOUGHNER's request. First, only about 5% of the individuals convicted of the this type of crime submit the Application and Order to Set Aside, of those only half complete the paperwork without a lawyer. Second, LOUGHNER completed the PC diversion class and submitted the paperwork faster than anyone he has seen. Third, the paperwork was filled out correctly, which for those not using a lawyer is rare. Forth, very few individuals accidentally/incorrectly submit the application after the case was dismissed via a diversion program.

Castillo said that while the NYtimes.com writer quoted him correctly, it was a bit out of context. At the time the Application and Order to set Aside Judgement request was received by Castillo's office there was no way for Castillo to believe LOUGHNER had submitted the request in order to pass a firearm background check. There are many reasons individuals want to have a drug conviction dismissed including job searches, security clearance applications, student loans, school applications, and personal pride, to name a few. Only in hindsight does it appear that LOUGHNER may have submitted the application in order to later purchase a weapon.

Castillo provided a copy of the LOUGHNER's file and related items which included the following:

- 1) A CD of the Pima County court recording on 10/04/2007.
- 2) Names of the individuals who have requested LOUGHNER's case file as of 1/20/2011.
- 3) Pima County Sheriff's Department Arizona Traffic Ticket and Complaint #502957.
- 4) Arraignment Minute Entry Oder and Judgement, 10/04/2007.
- 5) Pima County Adult Diversion Program consultation for LOUGHNER.
- 6) Pima County Case #CR07718864, AZ vs. Jared Lee LOUGHNER. Notice of Successful Completion of Diversion and Order to Dismiss Charges.
- 7) Court calendar for the Judge Castillo, 10/04/2007.

The aforementioned CD and documents as well as a copy of the NYTimes.com article (which is available on-line) will be documented on a separate cover FD-302, placed in a 1-A envelope and maintained in the case file.

[redacted] was recently misquoted in the newspapers as having been a classmate of LOUGHNER's at Mountain View High School. [redacted] initially met LOUGHNER during [redacted] freshman year at the school. LOUGHNER was two years ahead of [redacted] at the time. They never had any classes together at Mountain View High School as was incorrectly reported by the newspapers. They did have one or two classes in close proximity to each other, and interacted in the lunchroom. [redacted] (phonetic spelling) was a high school friend of [redacted] who actually did have classes with LOUGHNER. [redacted] was the person [redacted] referred to as having classes in common with LOUGHNER when speaking to the newspaper. [redacted] has not been in contact with [redacted] for a long time and did not have any contact information for him.

[redacted] first interaction with LOUGHNER was in 2003 or 2004 in the school lunchroom. This was a simple conversation about the quality of the chicken nuggets served that day. LOUGHNER was a junior or senior in high school, at the time [redacted] was a freshman. Later, [redacted] engaged infrequently with LOUGHNER between classes because they have one or two classes next door to each other.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 01/14/2011

Pursuant to an authorized arrest warrant, on January 10, 2011, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Special Agent (SA) [redacted] and writer took custody of Jared Lee Loughner, date of birth [redacted] at the United States Penitentiary (USP), Tucson, Arizona and transported him to the United States Marshal's cellblock in the United States Courthouse in Phoenix, Arizona.

At approximately 6:00 am, Deputy United States Marshal [redacted] and writer took custody of Loughner in the Receiving and Discharge unit of the USP. Loughner was searched and restrained using handcuffs, a belly chain, and leg irons. Loughner was placed into [redacted] vehicle and driven to the sally port area of the USP, where he was transferred to writer's vehicle for the drive to Phoenix. Loughner was in the backseat with writer and SA [redacted] drove, departing the USP at approximately 6:30 am.

Just before 7:00 am, SA [redacted] turned on the car radio at which point the radio announcer was making a comment about the congresswoman laying the hospital. SA [redacted] immediately turned off the radio. Loughner made the statement, "That's confirmation to me."

Loughner asked writer several questions during the drive to Phoenix:

Loughner asked, "How do I throw out my attorney?" Writer responded that he (Loughner) needed to talk to his attorney about that.

Loughner asked, "Where are we going?" Writer responded that we were going to the courthouse in Phoenix where he (Loughner) would have his initial appearance in front of a judge.

Loughner asked, "Where am I staying tonight?" Writer responded that he did not know.

Loughner also made the statement, "I'm probably gonna throw out my attorney." To which writer responded that Loughner would see a judge and that writer was not the one to advise him.
