

V.I. Fabrikant's Homepage

WELCOME! I have compiled in this web site 3 kinds of documents:

1. Large essays (description of events at Concordia and how the media lied about it; my diary, NSERC report and my comments on it);
2. Legal documents (transcript of my trial, appeals, civil lawsuits, etc.)
3. Regular postings in the newsgroups (jail, politics, medicine, crime, religion, etc)

There is saying for a man to have a good and meaningful life, he has to plant a tree, to write a book and raise a son. I would change it as follows, for a man to have a good and meaningful life, he has to plant a tree, to write a book and raise a son, and kill at least one scoundrel.

Here are the results of my life. I planted many trees, I wrote three books, plus scientific articles, I raised a son and daughter, and I killed not one, but four scoundrels.
