On 2/5/10 at 1030 hours I received a call from Division Dean Patricia Houston reference suspicious behavior of student Jared L. Loughner in class at the Northwest Campus, 7600 N. Shannon Road, Tucson, Arizona.

Houston reported that a student named Jared Loughner had reacted strangely to the reading of another student's poem in class. Houston stated the teacher had said Loughner had made comments in the class after the poem that were a huge leap from the context of the poem and said things about abortion, wars, killing people, and "why don't we just strap bombs to babies." Houston said that Loughner has a "dark personality" and is kind of "creepy" and they had resolved to just keep an eye on him. However, they had received an email from another student in the class who thought he might have a knife in his possession in a protective cover; she wasn't sure if it was a knife, but thought it might be. She decided to advise of the situation and seek our advice.

I asked Houston if the student had been the cause of any other incidents, distractions, or code of conduct issues and she said no. I told her I would check Loughner's history and see if there was anything we needed to be concerned about that we could link to this kind of behavior. I told her if so we might make contact with him and discuss the concerns with him; and if there was nothing to indicate he might have a trend of misbehavior of this type, that we really didn't have anything to react to in a law enforcement mode at this time. I suggested they keep an eye on him and call us if anything else developed that concerned them.

I had Dispatch run him for warrants and history. Loughner has some prior drug involvement but no warrants or anything of immediate concern. For now, this report documents the faculty's concerns but does not in my opinion justify making contact with Loughner by police.

OLICE DED MA COLLI

Semination Sov I met with Jared Lee Loughner today to discuss the incident that occurred yesterday.

I arrived to his math class at 8:20am, introduced myself to the Instructor, quietly introduced myself Jared and informed him that I wanted to hear his perspective, about the incident that occurred yesterday, in the privacy of my office.

He stated, "I am offended" and I informed him that I would like to hear about it outside of the class. He followed me outside of the class, and returned to the class briefly to get his belongings.

As we walked out of the class, he asked me if I was a cop, I told him no, but there could be one if we could not find a way to meet a happy medium. I followed up by letting him know that my goal was to find a middle ground that would benefit everyone concerned. He questioned why he had to leave the class when he was only exercising his freedom of speech.

When we arrived to my office, I asked him to explain what transpired yesterday in his math class, and he said, "I don't know what you are talking about." I reminded him that a complaint was made that he was disruptive in class and he said, "I was not disruptive, I was only asking questions that related to math."

I asked him to tell me the questions he asked? He said, "My Instructor said he called a number 6 and I said I call it 18." He also asked the Instructor to explain, "How can you deny math instead of accept it?"

I asked him to explain how this was pertinent to the subject at hand? He said these questions caused students to think. I asked him to describe his views on time and place. He said he paid $200 for the class so he should have the right to speak. He added that he has taken other courses and was scammed so he was going to do everything to ensure that he passed this class. I asked him to explain scammed and he said he took prior classes, failed, and did not get his money back.

I asked him if he felt he was being scammed in this math class, he said that he wasn't, but added that it scared him that his freedom of speech rights were being taken away. He also complained about being removed from class to talk to the Counselor.

I told him that I wanted to talk about rights as well as time and place. Every student has the right to have a safe learning environment; how are you meeting the rights of other students when you must exercise your right to call the number 6, 18. Have you considered the rights of the students who are sitting in class struggling to understand 6, while you argue with the instructor?

I informed him that the students are making the same complaint about being robbed of their educational experience that he was making to me, and asked him to explain the difference. I further informed him that the Instructor has to cover material in 5 weeks that is generally covered in 16 weeks, so there might not be time for students to ponder his questions, so his questions might have to be asked after class.

He was reassured that when he becomes an Instructor he will have the right to teach a class based on his teaching style, but in the meantime, his Instructor will conduct the class the way he sees fit and if Jared had a problem with this, I would be happy to drop him from the class.

Jared said he wanted to remain in the class and he showed proof that he was doing the assignments. He asked me if I was saying that he could not speak in class and I informed him that he could ask his philosophical questions after class, and ask "how do I solve this problem questions in class."

He reassured me that he did not want to be expelled from class. I asked him to tell me what he planned to do to remain in this class, and he said that he planned not to ask any questions.

He mentioned in closing that he spoke to some guy (another Counselor in this office) about asking questions in class, and reiterated again that it scared him that his right to freedom of speech was being squelched. This student was informed that the formal code would go into effect if this should happen again.

This student was warned. He has extreme views and frequently meanders from the point. He seems to have difficulty understanding how his actions impact others, yet very attuned to his unique ideology that is not always homogeneous. Since his resolution was to remain silent in class and successfully complete the course, I had no grounds to keep him out of class.

And for OFFICIAL SOLUCIE LISE Federal and State Laws of governed by

Since he reported that an incident such as this occurred in another class, Administrators will have to help this student clearly understand what is appropriate classroom dialog. It. Mistepontis Ci And for OFICIAL DOLIDE LIDE ONLY Share retweet It's official! Call your grandmother (I don't know why she would care, but call her anyway). The complete official lineup for this summer's (Metal Injection sponsored) Rockstar Energy Mayhem Festival has been announced and it's certainly an eclectic buffet of hard rock and heavy metal using a something for everybody approach. Without further ado:

They certainly seem to have gone more mainstream and less extreme this year. While this isn't the most exciting lineup I have ever seen, you book Lamb of God on a show and I'm there. Let us know what you think of the lineup in the comments. Just Lamb of God, Shadows Fall, Rob Zombie, and 3 Inches of Blood would be an awesome show.. In This Moment, Chimaira, and Five Finger Death Punch have maybe 5 good songs between them. I just can't imagine myself sitting through the other terrible bands to get to good ones. Maybe if the tickets are cheap...

Other than Lamb of God there are no must see bands for me this year. Im going for Lamb of God, there always insane. ive never liked more than a few Rob Zombie songs, but i guess its prolly as close as ill get to seeing White Zombie, i hope they play some WZ. Korn maybe, ive hated them since their 4th album, but the 1st one is still cool, as long as its not a bunch of new shit. i saw FFDP at the 1st mayhem and i left their set cuz they sucked massive ass. Winds of Plague was cool at Slaughterfest but that was with Kristen, who is now gone. She was my fave part of WoP, and not only because i want her to be the mother of my children. 3 Inches seems like they could be cool cuz their always on tour with Black Dahlia & Skeletonwitch. i haven't like Atreyu, except for Lip Gloss & Black. but that was because my friend learned the guitar part, and it was sweet. Hatebreed, Shadows Fall, and Chimiera have always been some of the blandest metal bands, ok music, just bland. and i absolutely fucking hate Norma Jean n In this Moment. maybe because year 1 had Mastodon, Suicide Silence, The Red Chord, and Slipknot. then last years was one of the best concerts ive ever been to, and will possibly never be rivaled in sheer holy fucking shitness. i noticed there's no hot topic stage this year, maybe that's why there are no extreme bands this year. HT stage was AMAZING last year. And obviously SLAYER slayed, even manson wasnt horrible, my gf loved his show and he played alot of his older stuff which ive always been ok with, i could understand the Jagerstage, but the other one sucks major ass cept for maybe 3IoB.

if the free tickets are for mainstage seats at the DTE in Michigan, ill be happy to take them off your hands...

I would to see LOG but I will NOT go if they are charging $13 for a budwieser like last year and I can't BYOB!.... that's just a slap in the face to the fans to lock them in a 110 degree cage and then charge $7 for a Monster and $4 for a fing water. I saw a guy fall with a tray of 4 beers... there goes $52... well the ants will be happy.

Also, who decides the headliners for this tour??? They always f that one up.

.... looks like i gotta get there early for SF, Chimara... and bail early again after 5FDP and LOG 5FDP is on the main stage hell yeah!! Great music all day at the other stages!! It's always a good show!

20. January 27th, 2010 at 3:27 pm <stealthisalbum> says:

Let's see, 2008, Slipknot was amazing, Disturbed kicked ass, Dragonforce sucked, Mastodon was awesome, Underoath was gay, Black Tide was boring, Suicide Silence was awesome, 36 Crazyfists was awesome, The Red Chord was great, Machine Head was awesome, Airbourne sucked, 5FDP was awesome, and Walls of Jericho blew. 2009, the whole entire show FUCKIN RULED!!!!!!! Including Manson, he put on a great show. Now 90s shock rock was okay in my book but queercore is where I draw the line. Atreyu, Norma Jean, In This Moment, are you fucking kidding me, this is a metal tour, not a screamo tour, even Three Inches of Blood doesn't add up. The mainstage is awesome and the Jager stage is alright but honestly, lose the emo bands like Atreyu, they don't belong at Mayhem Fest. You should have got Messhugah or Dimmu Borgir and there are a lot of very unpopular deathmetal bands that are awesome enough and would sever an arm to play even on the opening spot. Expect me there a few hours late cuz I'm only going for Korn and Zombie.

February 6th, 2010 at 12:52 pm Scramles says:

I personally like this years lineup (minus atreyu and norma jean...) but Zombie is good, Korn's old stuff is good, I FUCKIN LOVE LAMB OF GOD, FFDP is okay, I never cared for atreyu, or norma jean. But In this moment is okay and i like 3 inches of blood (Even though they have no original members left).

Hatebreed.. SICK Chimaira.. SICK Shadows Fall.. SICK Winds Of Plague.. SICK

It's still gonna be a good show. I'll even stick around for the other bands that i dont like just to see how well of a show they put on.

On 9/23/2010 at approximately 3731 hrs I was dispatched to a disturbance call at Pima Community College Northwest Campus, building D room 301.

On 9/23/2010 at approximately 0731 hrs I was dispatched to a disturbance call at Pima Community College Northwest Campus, building D room 301. I responded from parking lot number 3. Upon arrival at D-301 I met with SCHEIDEMANTEL, DEBORA an Adjunct Faculty member who had reported the disturbance. SCHEIDEMANTEL informed me that one of her students, LOUGHNER, JARED, had caused a disruption in the classroom when she told him that he would only receive half credit on an assignment because it was late. SCHEIDEMANTEL stated that LOUGHNER said that was a violation of his right to freedom of speech and continued to cause the start of class to be delayed.

SCHEIDEMANTEL said that LC GHNER asked if he could leave class and finish the assignment and then turn it in, she told him again that he still would only receive half credit since the due date was past. LOUGHNER was insistent that his freedom of speech was being taken away. SCHEIDEMANTEL seemed visibly upset. I informed her that I was going to escort LOUGHNER out of class and talk with him about the incident.

When I entered the classroom LOUGHNER had gotten up and was heading towards the door. I contacted him just outside of room D-301. I informed LOUGHNER that I had received a call that there was a disturbance in the classroom. LOUGHNER immediately said that his freedom of speech had been taken away. I informed him that was not the case and if he could explain to me what had happened and why I had to be called to his classroom. LOUGHNER could not verbalize what the problem was and kept referring back to the freedom of speech. I noticed during my questioning that LOUGHNER'S head was constantly tilted to the left and his eyes were jittery and looking up and to the left. At this point Officer Dana Mattocks arrived on scene. I informed Officer Mattocks about the incident and the difficulty in communicating with LOUGHNER. Officer Mattocks spoke with LOUGHNER and at this point the loss of freedom of speech turned into freedom of thought and his right to write whatever he wanted to and get a good grade on his work. LOUGHNER was not understanding that his actions and causing a disruption in class had nothing to do with his cold to freedom of speech or freedom of thought. LOUGHNER was unable to process why the police were involved in the incident. Officer Mattocks put LOUGHNER through a channel of basic reasoning questions. One of the questions used was, is it okay to yell fire in a theater full of people, if in fact there is no fire? LOUGHNER'S thought process through the freedom of speech thinking is yes, that is acceptable because he has the freedom of speech and there was no consequence. Throughout the the course of questioning LOUGHNER was only concerned about his grade until he was made to understand that because of his actions that an administrative suspension could be recommended. LOUGHNER repeated several times that he wanted to stay in school. Officer Mattocks spoke with SCHEIDEMANTEL while I stayed with LOUGHNER. It was decided that LOUGHNER should not be allowed back into the classroom today due to the instructor and other students not feeling comfortable with LOUGHNER after the earlier disruption. Officer Mattock and I suggested to LOUGHNER that we go talk to Aubrey Conover, the Advanced Program Manager for Northwest Campus. Officer Mattocks and I escorted LOUGHNER to Mr. Conover's office. Officer Mattocks informed Mr. Conover about the incident and he agreed to speak with LOUGHNER. LOUGHNER was asked if he would like Officer Mattocks in Mr. Conover's office during there conversation. LOUGHNER heid ves he would like Officer Mattocks in the office, however Officer Mattocks after only a few momen realized that his presence was not what was needed in this meeting. After approximately twenty mine as Mr. Conover and LOUGHNER emerged from the office. We were informed that a follow up meeting is scheduled for Monday of next week. LOUGHNER seemed to be content with help he was given and ler Mr. Conover's office.

On 09/23/10 at approximately 0731 hours I was dispatched for response as a backup officer the classroom disturbance in building D, classroom 301 at Pima College Northwest Campus located at 7600 N. Shannon Road. I was currently stationed at Pima College Downtown Campus located at 1255 N. Stone and arrived to the classroom at approximately 0745 hours.

Officer States #387, the primary officer for this call was speaking with a Pima College student matching the dispatched description outside the classroom located on the southeastern third floor. Officer States had already identified him as Jared Loughner (DOB 09/10/88)(S1) through his Arizona driver's license and date of birth. As I approached and listened, I found it apparently evident through their conversation that Jared Loughner found difficulty understanding what he had done wrong inside the classroom. Officer States spoke with Loughner for approximately 10 minutes while Loughner remained concentrated on a "Freedom of Speech" Act in correlation to his current homework assignment. I requested to speak with the student and then initiated a conversation. Mr. Loughner continued standing and I observed his head was tilted to the left with a confused look in the countenance of his face. His eyes focused down at his homework and he showed a sustained bobbing of the eyes while looking to his upper left side during questioning. After introducing myself I asked him to tell me what happened today. He very slowly began telling me in a low and mumbled voice that under the Constitution which had been written on the wall for all to see, he had the right to his "Freedom of thought" and whatever he thought in his head he could also put on paper. By placing his thoughts within his homework assignment, his teacher "must be required to accept it" as a passing grade.

Over the next course of 30 minutes and during our conversations I asked Mr. Loughner if he knew why the Police had been called out to speak with him. His responses repeated references to his homework assignment, the outcome of his grade and his right to the freedom of thought. I requested his understanding to causing a disruption in class. His response pointed to his hand raised and called upon by the instructor which indeed allowed him to speak without interruption since he then, "Had the floor" and also his "Freedom of thought". I spoke later to the instructor Ms. Susan Scheidemantel; she stated that his actions did not allow the class to continue normal classroom operations. She said he stood up when called upon and described his voice growing louder and louder into a disruptive manner for her and several of her students. By taking the extra time through repeated explanation I was eventually able to communicate with Mr. Loughner that his actions in the classroom were disruptive and not permitted. I informed him that even though he had his 'freedom of thought', he was also required to submit to the structure of a classroom setting within a College as set forth by the Instructor and also explained in the Student Code of Conduct rules. Loughner acknowledged that he knew about the Student Code of Conduct but reverted back several times to his payment of classes, entitlements to his actions and then referenced money as a strong issue through repetition. The conversation was grading as Officer States and I considered the best possible options with Mr. Loughner's state of mind and reasoning. It was clear that he was unable to fully understand his actions and an Administrative approach was reasonable at this time. Opposing for Mr. Loughner to return at a later date to speak with the Dean of Students we escorted him upon his request to the Campus Administrator located on the 2nd floor East of the Library. While Officer States remained outside with Jared Loughner I contacted Aubrey Conover's office to request an immediate interview. After agreeing to speak with Loughner, Mr. Conover walked outside to greet him and additionally recognized him from previous conversations and appointments. At first Loughner requested my presence in the meeting and stated he wanted to fully obey the officer and cooperate fully with the process. Initially I attending the sit down meeting in Mr. Conover's office and advised Loughner that I was only here to support him during conversation as he requested. A few minutes later it became apparent that I was not needed and I initiated excusing myself from the conversation to give full privacy to their meeting and exchange of information. After such time approximately 25 minutes later, Loughner was seen leaving Mr. Conover's office and then the area of the Campus. Before leaving, Mr. Conover conveyed that an additional appointment had been set with Loughner on Monday, September 27th. I then cleared the area with Officer States without further incident at 0940 hours. NFI

On 09/29/10 at approximately 1800 hours I was dispatched to serve a Pima-College 'Notice of Immediate Suspension' letter for Jared Loughner (DOB 09/10/88) to his residence located at 7741 N. Soledad Avenue in Pima County.

I went in route from Pima College West Campus located at 2202 W. Anklam Road and arrived to Pima College Northwest Campus of 7600 N. Shannon at 1900 hours. I passengered with Supervisor Sgt. Franz (S4) at this time and requested for FTO Officer Gittings #316 and Officer Haywood #386T to remain in the neighborhood area as backup. At approximately 1930 hours Sgt. Franz and I attempted contact with the residence of the household without response and then left the area. After Dispatch recontacted the listed phone numbers for Mr. Loughner we were notified that a male answered the telephone. We recontacted the residence successfully at 2030 hours and were invited into the garage by the father, Mr. Randy Loughner after awaiting for the family to put away dogs.

While inside the garage I spoke with Jared who held a constant trance of staring as I narrated the past events that had transpired. These events have been documented by Police reports and meetings conducted by Pima College Administration. I served the 'Notice of Immediate Suspension' to Mr. Jared Loughner by reading the letter verbatim to him and giving it directly to him. It was clear that he understood our reason at the home and the terms of the letter as he read the letter back to me. Even though we spent approximately one hours relaying the information and narration of Jared's actions that brought him to his current predicament, Jared left his silence and spoke out saying, "I realize now that this is all a scam". With this information Sgt. Franz advised the meeting was adjourned. At approximately 2131 hours we cleared the area after a brief conversation with the father in the back yard. No further information known.

Summary of Meetings with Jared Loughner in regards to September 23rd incident

On the morning of Sept 23rd officers were called to remove Jared Loughner from his Biology class due to disruptive behavior. The officers brought the student to my office for an initial discussion and possible code of conduct violation. At that time Jared indicated that he did not know why officers had been called he was "only asking a question" but he did not want to get into the code of conduct process and would be dropping the class. I explained to Jared that as part of the investigation I would need to get information from the instructor and as well as his side of the story. We set up a time to meet the next time he would be on campus, Monday the 27th.

During the meeting on the 27th I explained to Jared that the information I had received from the instructor indicated that Jared had been repeatedly asking for full credit on an assignment that he had not completed on time. The instructor explained that this was not possible according to the syllabus and that Jared would only receive half credit. Jared continued to ask the same question as well as stating that the 1st amendment gave him the right to ask questions and that he paid the teacher's salary so he was entitled to full credit. I then asked Jared if he would explain his side of the event. Jared then gave a cryptic answer of understanding that he needed to write what the teacher wants and that he would drop the class. I asked Jared how this compared to his earlier statements that due to his "Universal Declaration of Human Rights" and 1st amendment rights he could put whatever he wanted down for an answer and he could receive full credit. Jared was unable to reconcile the two and changed topics. He then stated that he had paid for his courses illegally. When question as to why he said, "I did not pay with gold and silver." When pressed as to why he thought he had to do this he said something about the constitution and then changed subjects. I began asking another question and Jared stated that he should not say any more. I asked why and Jared stated that his parents told him to not say more. I asked if it would be ok to have his parents join us to help work through the situation he said yes and we scheduled a time to meet the next evening at 6:00pm.

It was suggested by the EEO office that I include a counselor in our meeting with Jared and his mom. I asked Allison Ward to join us at the meeting. During the Jared signed a release of information form so that we could share specifics about the incident with his mom. I then proceeded to go over the issues. I asked Jared to give his account of what had happened but he stated that he had told the police and did not want to say anymore. When asked about the earlier conflicting statements about the right of the teacher to evaluate students Jared gave a scripted answer of, "I know I have to follow Pima processes and write what the teacher wants." When Allison asked if Jared had a support network to help him be successful in school Jared again said that he did not want to talk about it and he would follow Pima policies. I explained that our next step would be for me to write up a behavioral contract that would outline the appropriate conduct that we had discussed throughout the meeting. Included in this contract would be agreed upon steps that Jared would take to avoid any further disruptions in any of his courses. It was agreed that he would come to my office Monday after class to sign the agreement. Throughout the meeting Jared held himself very rigidly and smiled overtly at inappropriate times. I am scheduled to meet with EEO this afternoon as to the best way to proceed.

Incident During January 2010

My only previous encounter with this directly with this student was during the last week in January. A writing instructor asked that I follow up with the student after he had made a "bizarre" comment in class. During the class student were talking about the poems they had written. One of the female students had a poem that in some way connected to abortion. With no context, Jared stated that we should have dynamite attached to babies. When I met with Jared his mother accompanied him. I asked Jared to help me understand his comment. He said that the class had been talking about abortion, which made him think of death, which made him think of suicide bombers, which made him think of babies as suicicde bombers. We talked about how you need to give context to you statements, especially when deal with emotional issues. Jared said he would just not say anothing in class. I explained that was not the answer, but that he need to think through how he cwanted to contribute in order to share his ideas in an appropriate fashion.

Follow up with the instructor said that Jared was doing ok, we was still acting a bit "bizarre" in class but there had been no further interruptions.
