

---

---

Alvaro Castillo's Journal

Transcribed by

PETER LANGMAN, PH.D.

Langman Psychological Associates, LLC

Only isolated, nonconsecutive pages from Castillo's journal have been released. The marginal page numbers below correspond to the facsimile of these pages available at School Shooters .info. Some text is cut off in the scans and has been supplied conjecturally when possible. To the best of our knowledge, the audio tapes and autobiography mentioned in the journal have never been released.

---

---

Page 1 — No cuss words or profanity is used. I [do] not believe in using foul language. —

Life's Fantasies

The Journal of Alvaro Castil[lo]

a.k.a. Al a.k.a. Big Al a.k.a. Big [...]

[Pasted-in photograph of Eric Harris; drawing of cross]

Eric Harris

Born: April 9th, 1981

Died: April 20th, 1999

(My picture is at the end!)

Page 2

Wednesday, March 29, 2006, 4:03 pm

[D]ear Journal,

I am going to do it! I have been thinking about [t]his moment since the 10th grade. I am going to buy [a] shotgun and I am going to commit suicide. I [b]ought some audio cassette tapes so I can [e]xplain to the police and my parents about why I did it. I plan

DOI 10.64247/752239 · Version 1.0 · Published 6 July 2025 · 3 pages

The text of this document is in the public domain. Editorial matter copyright © 2025 by Peter Langman, Ph.D.

to commit suicide on either April 20th or April 21st. April 20th is an obvious choice, for it is the seventh anniversary of the Columbine High School Massacre. However, I want to see the documentaries that they will show on the History Channel. If [REDACTED] is here, I will wait until he leaves. Then, I will commit the act. I will send Anna and [sic] e-mail telling her how much I love and care for her. I will tell her that I would pass by her house, and that I named my shotgun or rifl[e] after her and the M-16 rifle in basic trainin[g.] I will also call [REDACTED] and confess to him what I will do. I have to do this. Every [sic] since that

Page 3 [Pasted-in Wal-Mart receipt for a shotgun] — Shotgun Receipt

Page 4 [Drawing of cross]
Alvaro Castillo
Rest In Peace!!!
[Pasted-in photograph of Castillo]
[In speech bubble:] I fa[...] 6/3/[...]
Born: November 6, 1987
Died: April 20, 2006

Cause of death: self-inflicted gunshot to the head via entrance through the

Page 5 Monday, June 12, 2006, 10:25 pm

Dear Journal,

Well, today I gave Arlene a complete makeover. I turned her into Eric's shotgun. I sawed off the barrel and stock of the shotgun with a hacksaw. It took a lot less time than I thought it would. I taped the butt of the shotgun with duct tape. Now I just have to test her. I also took [REDACTED]'s bomb apart, and I no [sic] know how to make more. I must reserve the motel for Denver today. Arlene looks so beautiful now. I also ordered a pistol belt and three ammunition pouches from the Internet. Everything is falling into place at last! Today, I also saw a program on the History Channel about Charles Whitman, the Texas Sniper. He was an ex-Marine who killed his wife, mother, and a number of other people on August 1, 1966. This year will mark the 40th anniversary. I can compare

Page 6 Tuesday, August 8, 2006, 10:05 [am?]

Dear Journal,

I will buy black cargo pants and black boots online to complete the uniform that Eric was wearing on April 20, 1999. I am feeling very depressed these days. I drown my sadness and depression with work, cleaning, and movies. Still, it just keeps coming back. I am a TV junkie. I have been addicted to movies and television ever since I was born. I just became interested in Rated R movies when I was 7 years old, around the same time I was shown pornography. I am having sexual fantasies these days and fantasies of being held hostage by an evil twin brother. I assume that he represents my dark side. I can't even cry! The anti-depressant [sic] I am taking doesn't seem to be working. On August 29, my depression [sic] will end permanently. I just want to die. I don't want to live like this anymore. I have endured 10 years

Wednesday, August 23, 2006, 11:26 pm

Dear Journal,

In one week, I will finally be dead. I am just putting the finishing touches on my autobiography. It is in my computer, in Microsoft Word, under the name Columbine. I have almost everything ready. I just need more ammo and I need to go to church before I begin. I cannot wait. I wish I could tell my family, but I can't. I miss Anna. Today, she starts her sophomore year at [REDACTED]. I will always think about her. She is so beautiful. I don't deserve her though. I do not deserve anyone. If I was mentally well, maybe I could've told her my feelings. I do feel sorry for scaring her. I know I am sick. What do you do with sick people like me. They can't change. You have to sacrifice them. Bad things could happen. We have to learn to sacrifice ourselves. I need to sleep now journal. Goodnight

Wednesday, August 30, 2006, 12:00 pm

Dear Journal,

Today is the big day for Operation Columbine. It is time that the world be reminded of Columbine. I will die today! I just killed my father. It felt good! He is finally dead. I do feel a little remorse. Still, he is finally with God and Tony. I loved my father. I hesitated but I finally did it. God be with him. [SS.I]